

Element Name:

Chotyak: The act of making tattoos from ink, grass of wheat, and soot on the cheeks and foreheads of women.

Community (ies) Concerned:

Kalasha women and girls of any age. The marking indicate tribal affiliations and the practice is carried out by women from the relevant tribes.