

Element Name:

Goshnik: A rite of passage used to initiate young children into the Kalasha religion.

Community(ies) concerned:

The rite of passage is compulsory for every individual of the Kalasha community; male and female. Every individual beyond the age of seven (approximately) goes through an initial ritual. This is followed by another ritual around the time of puberty .