

Element Name:

Jirgaskarik Nanawatay: Traditional Judicial system of conflict resolution

Community(ies) concerned:

Qazi's, village elders, persons considered wise, and those well versed in the art of rhetoric are the primary members of a Kalasha Jirga. The majority of the members are male, however females are not explicitly restricted and some also take part in the proceedings. The wider community is however involved as they regularly call upon the practice to solve disputes.